Session I (June 17-21)

Digging the Triad

Session: Session I (June 17-21)
Time: 8:30am – 3:30pm or later (end times will vary)
Ages: 6 years – 12 years

Before TMS parent Leann Pace leaves to excavate in Israel she is going to start her digging here in NC. Pack your trowel, your hat and your sense of adventure. For a week, you will explore what it’s like to be an archaeologist. Students will receive hands on experience in the techniques of excavation, artifact analysis, and artifact conservation (in other words...how to dig and what to do with what you find!). Students will visit excavation sites and museums, with special access at some Wake Forest projects to see what other archaeologists are finding in North Carolina.

The Great Montessori Book Emporium

Session: Session I (June 17-21)
Time: 8:30am – 3:30pm or later
Ages: 6 years – 12 years

The Great Montgomery Book Emporium, a world-famous bookstore in London with extravagant displays filled with thousands of books, is being raffled off. Netty Jones and her two children, a 16-year-old boy and 11-year-old girl, run a small bookshop miles south of London. The Joneses’ bookshop is in a dilapidated old pub and is teetering on bankruptcy. When the ad for The Grand Montgomery Drawing appears in the newspaper, everyone in the Joneses’ town seems to have entered and all of Great Britain is abuzz at the prospect of being the next owner. Defying long odds, the Joneses win the drawing and begin the adventure of their lives. Join our TMS Librarian Marybeth Oas and Lower Elementary Guide Shama Doshi as we read The Bookshop Girl by Sylvia Bishop, the source of this incredible adventure. (Each camper will receive a copy of the book.) We will read and discuss the book together, unraveling the mystery of why Albert H. Montgomery chose to give away his miraculous bookshop. Inspired by Sylvia Bishop’s descriptive writing, we will also build a replica of this “Object of Wonder,” but in true TMS fashion, we will “make it our own” —the Great Montessori Book Emporium.

Note to parents: This camp is intended for fluent independent readers and requires a high level of reading comprehension, an interest in art, and independent construction skills. The intended audience for the book is readers in Grades 3-6.
Session II (June 24-28)

Crafty Kids

Session: Session II (June 24-28)
Time: 8:30am – 11:30am
Ages: 6 years – 12 years

Prepare to get your creative juices flowing! Campers will explore a variety of materials while making fun craft projects that are sure to excite. Have fun with paint, chalk, beads, tie-dye and even feathers! We'll also use objects found in nature and recycled materials to create crafty keepsakes. Campers are sure to impress friends and family with some of the wearable art that will be created throughout the week. Travel to the world of arts and crafts and let your imagination fly!

Expressing MYselfie

Session: Session II (June 24-28)
Time: 12:30pm – 3:30pm
Ages: 6 years – 12 years

Express yourself through art! Show who you are with a creative self-portrait. Enjoy the process of putting words, shapes, and colors together to display what makes YOU, the only YOU. Share your talents and personality with your family and friends. Campers will enjoy using their creativity to display their artistic identity. Don't miss the fun!

Outdoor Adventure

Session: Session II (June 24-28)
Time: 8:30am – 3:30pm or later (end times will vary)
Ages: Rising 4th years – AP and Alumni (Rising 8th Grade Students)

Upper Elementary Co-Lead Sarah Pitcher is returning to lead this adventurous week and partnering with Children’s House Assistant Jeff Riley during this exciting assortment of outdoor based adventures. Step beyond your comfort zone and challenge yourself all week long! The week’s adventures will take campers to Pilot Mountain State Park to check out the river section and beyond, Kayak on the New River, navigating a high ropes course, biking at Salem Lake, and end the week swimming at the mountain lake at Hanging Rock State Park. This camp emphasizes leave no trace skills and guarantees that you will make memories not soon forgotten! So round up your friends and catch the bus! This camp will be physically challenging. Prepare to push yourself! THIS CAMP WILL FILL UP!
Session III (July 8-12)

The FUNdamentals of Woodworking

Session: Session III (July 8-12)
Time: 8:30am – 11:30am
Ages: 6 years – 12 years

Creating something with your hands is way more fun than purchasing it at a store! Join TMS’s very own handy man Gary Mote in this hands-on woodworking camp. Campers will learn how to safely handle tools, how to choose the perfect piece of wood, how to cut it, finish it and create something to be proud of. We will also have a guest speaker talk about the different types of exotic woods and what type of wood is best for each home project. At the end of camp they will bring home their very own, handmade projects.

Follow the Yarn

Session: Session III (July 8-12)
Time: 12:30pm – 3:30pm
Ages: 6 years – 12 years

If you enjoy arts and crafts, you will love this yarn-painting adventure! Local artist Monica Weber is returning to our school to share the art of the Huichol, an indigenous Mexican culture renowned for their exceptional creativity. Campers will learn how to achieve the unique halo-effect that defines their ancient yarn-painting technique by following simple principles of contrasting color and value. Campers will learn while having fun and take home a very special work of art. Students who have participated in Monica’s yarn-painting workshops before will enjoy honing their existing skills to create even more elaborate designs.
